FAMILY COMMUNITY GALLERY

Participation, Consent and Publication Guidelines

The 365 for Kids Family Community Gallery gives children and teens an opportunity to share their creative work with a wider community.

By submitting a work, the parent or legal guardian confirms and agrees to the following:

1. Participation

- The submission is made by the child's parent or legal guardian.
- The submitted work was created by the child.
- The work is original and is not copied, AI-generated, or primarily created by an adult.
- The submission is appropriate for children, families, and a public community gallery.

2. Content That Cannot Be Accepted

Artwork, writing, or audio submissions may not include:

- violent, threatening, hateful, discriminatory, sexually explicit, or otherwise inappropriate content;
- bullying, harassment, insults, or content intended to harm or humiliate another person;
- personal or identifying information about a child or another person;
- copyrighted material, copied work, or content created by someone other than the child;
- AI-generated content or work primarily created by an adult;
- advertising, commercial promotion, political campaigning, or fundraising requests;
- content that is unlawful, unsafe, misleading, or unrelated to the purpose of the Community Showcase.

365 for Kids may decline, hide, or remove any submission that it considers inappropriate, unsafe, unsuitable for children and families, or inconsistent with the purpose of the Community Showcase.

3. Permission to Publish

The parent or legal guardian gives 365 for Kids permission to:

- review the submitted work;
- publish it in the 365 for Kids Community Showcase;
- display the public information submitted with the work;
- use the work in materials related to 365 for Kids and its educational and community programs.

The child and family retain ownership of the submitted work.

4. Review and Publication

Submission does not guarantee publication.

365 for Kids may accept, decline, hide, or remove a submission based on these guidelines and the purpose of the Community Showcase.

Minor changes may be made to formatting, sizing, or presentation when needed for publication. The meaning or creative content of the child's work will not be intentionally changed.

5. Child Privacy

Submissions must be made by a parent or legal guardian.

365 for Kids does not request or publish a child's full legal name or unnecessary identifying personal information through the Family Community Gallery submission process.

Only the public display information provided and approved by the parent or legal guardian may appear with the submitted work.

6. Parent or Guardian Responsibility

The parent or legal guardian confirms that they have the authority to submit the work and grant the permissions described in these guidelines.

By submitting, the parent or legal guardian also agrees to the 365 for Kids Privacy Policy and Terms and Conditions.

7. Questions or Removal Requests

A parent or legal guardian may contact 365 for Kids to ask a question or request that a published submission be removed.
