

Parent/Guardian Permission Slip

2026 Annual Children's Stories & Art Exhibition — "If Stories Could Come Alive" • Free • Ages 6–17 • Not a contest

Your child's class or program is taking part in a free national children's art exhibition. If you agree, the organization named below will send us a photo of your child's original artwork. Every accepted artwork is shown in the online exhibition (opening December 10, 2026) and printed in the official exhibition catalog, and your child receives a Certificate of Participation through the organization. We never publish your child's photo, full name, or contact details.

About the child

Organization / class / program

Name shown with the artwork (first name + last initial, or a nickname — e.g., Emma M.)

Age (6–17)

Name for the Certificate of Participation (not published)

State where the child lives

Optional: parent email, if you would also like the certificate emailed to you (not published)

By signing, I confirm and agree that:

- I am the child's parent or legal guardian, and my child is 6–17 years old and lives in the United States.
- The artwork is my child's own original, handmade work (not AI-generated, copied, or made mostly by an adult). One artwork per child.
- The organization named above may submit my child's artwork and the information on this slip to 365 for Kids on my behalf.
- The artwork may be shown in the online exhibition and online galleries, printed in the official exhibition catalog, and used on certificates. The catalog may be published and offered for sale (for example, on Amazon); buying it is never required, and participation does not create a right to royalties.
- Promotion: 365 for Kids may also share an image of the artwork on its social media and in advertising for this exhibition and its other free educational programs. In these posts and ads only the artwork itself is shown — never my child's name, age, location, school, or any other information.
- My child keeps ownership of the original artwork. I may ask to withdraw or remove it by writing to info@365forkids.com, as described in the Participation Rules.
- I have read, or have had the chance to read, the Participation Rules and the Privacy Policy at 365forkids.com.
